No. A/20 – 2811 of 5 October 2026

To the Rector of the University of Szczecin,
Professor Waldemar TARCZYŃSKI

Dear colleagues,

The “Ștefan cel Mare” Academy of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of the Republic of Moldova is delighted to invite you to take part in the 6th edition of the International Scientific Conference entitled: “THE PROTECTION OF FUNDAMENTAL HUMAN RIGHTS AND FREEDOMS IN THE PROCESS OF ENSURING PUBLIC ORDER AND SECURITY”.

The event will take place on 10 December 2026 at the headquarters of the “Ștefan cel Mare” Academy of the Ministry of Internal Affairs, in Chișinău, Republic of Moldova, to mark International Human Rights Day, and will be held in a hybrid format, with both in-person and online participation.

The conference aims to provide an academic framework for the presentation and discussion of scientific research findings, best practices and professional experiences regarding the protection and observance of fundamental human rights and freedoms in the work of institutions responsible for ensuring public order and security.

The event will bring together academic staff, researchers, PhD students, practitioners and representatives of relevant institutions from the Republic of Moldova and other countries.

To facilitate participation and the exchange of views amongst participants from different linguistic backgrounds, the conference proceedings will be supported by simultaneous interpretation services between Romanian and English.

Papers may, in particular, address the following thematic areas:

- constitutional, European and international safeguards for human rights;
- the legality and proportionality of public order measures and the use of force;
- the rights of individuals in criminal and administrative proceedings and the protection of vulnerable persons;
- privacy, personal data and the use of digital technologies;
- border security, migration, asylum and international cooperation;
- the integrity, accountability and oversight of law enforcement agencies;

- the prevention and combating of organised crime, corruption, human trafficking and money laundering, whilst respecting human rights;
- forensic methods and techniques, and special investigative activities in the fight against crime, with due regard for human rights;
- combating cybercrime and the management of digital evidence, whilst respecting privacy and the protection of personal data;
- preventing and combating domestic violence and offences against children, whilst ensuring the protection of victims, etc.

In this context, we invite you to present a scientific paper and, where applicable, to submit the corresponding article for publication in the conference proceedings. Submissions will be assessed in accordance with the requirements set out in the annex to this invitation, and accepted papers will be included in the conference proceedings.

To participate, please send the following information by 20 November 2026 to the email address conference.academy@mai.gov.md:

- the surname and first name of the author(s);
- the affiliated institution;
- the title of the scientific paper.

Articles intended for publication may be submitted by 10 December 2026, in accordance with the formatting requirements set out in the annex.

The conference programme, information on online participation, and other organisational details will be communicated to registered participants and will be available on the official website of the “Ștefan cel Mare” Academy of the Ministry of Internal Affairs.

We would be delighted to have you join us at this academic event and to benefit from your expertise and contribution to the academic dialogue on the protection of fundamental human rights and freedoms.

Thank you for your willingness to participate and for your interest; we look forward to a broad participation in the conference proceedings.

Annex: Guidelines for the Submission and Formatting of Scientific Papers (3 pages)

Yours sincerely,

Rector,
Dr. hab., Professor,
Chief Commissioner
